Fur Farmers Fined For Licence Lack

Six Saanich residents learned yesterday that a licence is necessary for the operation of a fur farm—even a small one.

Fined $15 each by Magistrate William Ostler in Saanich police court were William M. Beekhuis, 1690 Burdon; George H. and Ann Massey, 672 McKenzie; William Moore, 3808 Merriman; George Palmer, 1630 North Dairy, and Cedric O. Smelcer, 2707 Richmond.

Each was visited by the municipal licence inspector and found to have from 10 to 50 chinchillas.

Four had since obtained their licences. The fifth was no longer in the fur business.

Harold Bukin, Munns Road, was fined $25 for allowing cattle to run at large, but warned that if there was any recurrence the penalty would be much stiffer.

Court was told that cattle belonging to accused had wandered into the garden of P. A. Codyre, down the road, and had damaged plants to the extent of $40 or $50.

Advised that Mr. Codyre was not asking for compensation, Magistrate Ostler told accused:

"You are fortunate that Mr. Codyre is such an astonishingly patient man. Exactly the same thing has happened before with your cattle. If it happens again you understand the penalty will not be so light."

"It won't your honor," said accused. "Since this last time our place is fully fenced."

Remanded for a probation report and sentence in the same court was Jack Kenneth Dye, 646 Admirals, who pleaded guilty to a charge of false pretences involving a worthless cheque for $25.

Also in Saanich court Donald Marlow Champion, 20, of 1737 Hampshire, was fined $25 for being a minor in possession of liquor. He had a quantity of beer in a car on Mt. Tolmie, and admitted to a previous conviction last November for the same offence.

DIFFERENT MEANING

The word billion means 1,000 millions in North America and France, but in Britain it stands for a million millions.
